9/16/85 THE WAGNER HIGH SCHOOL FOOTBALL FIELD, STATEN ISLAND, NEW YORK

Tonga #2 W. Kurt Von Hess (Each athlete tried to do the other in, with every trick they could think of. The finale occurred, when Tonga pinned Hess after executing a very good Sunset Flip.)

Jules Strongbow W. The Great Kogita (By pin, after coming off the ring ropes, and falling on top of Kogita. The referee then took the pin count.)

Johnny Rodz W. Ray Appollo (This match had alot of action. During the match, Ray looked good, but Johnny was sensational. During the match, both athletes used various holds. The finale of this match occurred as follows: Johnny executed a very good suplex on his opponent. Then he executed a Hip Roll and pinned his opponent. This was a very exciting bout, to say the least.)

The Tonga Kid WON A Battle Royal. (The last men in the ring were one of the Mad Russians, Kurt Von Hess, and The Tonga Kid. The Kid disposed of Von Hess, with no trouble. The Russian and The Kid fought like wild tigers. The Kid finally raised The Russian, and threw him towards the mat floor; but instead he landed on the ring ropes, and fell over the top one. The Kid was declared the winner, because of this action.)

Dom DeNucci W. The Mad Russian -DQ. (During this match, Sheik Ali Abdullah, The Russian's Manager was at ringside. The Russian was disqualified, because his patrner, the other Mad Russian, interfered. This match was very good, with alot of mat action.)
The Tonga Kid D.C.O.R. David Shultz (Both men were fighting in the ring. Shultz started to get dirty. His action's sent the Kid to the arena floor. Shultz then left the ring to go after The Kid. Both men fought outside the ring. The referee counted both men out, outside the ring. The official decision was ruled a double countout.)

THIS CARD WAS PROMOTED AND PRESENTED BY TRANS WORLD WRESTLING FEDERATION (T.W.W.F.), INC.

K.L.

9/7/85 THE REGINIA PACIS SCHOOL, BROOKLYN, NEW YORK

Dom DeNucci W. Ray Appollo -C.O.R. (This match had alot of action, with each athlete trying to do the other in. Towards the end of this match, both men were fighting on the arena floor. The referee started his count. DeNucci made it back into the ring, before the referee finished. Appollo was still outside the ring, on the arena floor. DeNucci was then, declared the winner, by count out. During this hard fought contest, Dom was bleeding from his forehead. Both men looked good in mat action.)

The Great Kogita DREW Jules Strongbow (Each athlete tried to do the other in, but could not. The bell finally rang to signal that the time limit expired. The Match was ruled a draw.)

The Haiti Kid W. Butch Cassidy (By pin, with a very good Back Slide. The midgets looked good in mat action.)

Johnny Rodz W. Larry Winters (By pin, after the use of a Suplex, and Diving Head- Butt. Larry looked good in mat action, but Johnny looked sensational.)

The Wild Samoan #1 (Afa) NO DEC. David Shultz (Arm Wrestling Contest: Afa finally got the upper hand. Shultz seeing that he was having a hard time, used his other arm, and hit Afa. He then used a chair on Afa. No official decision was announced.)

The Wild Samoan #1 (Afa) D.C.O.R. David Shultz (Afa and Shultz went at it like wild tigers. During this match, Afa was bent on destroying Shultz, because of what he did in the arm wrestling contest. Both men took their war to the arena floor. The referee counted both men out, outside of the ring, thus making this a double count out.)

The Wild Samoan #2 (Sika) & The Tonga Kid
W.
The Mad Russians -DQ.
(The Russians were escorted to the ring, by there Manager, The Infamous Sheik Ali Abdullah. This match had alot of action. The Russians finally were disqualified, because of outside interference on the part of their manager.)

9/23/85 MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK CITY, NEW YORK
Scott McGhee W. Les Thornton (By pin, with a Double Leg Hook Cradle.)

Adrian Adonis W. Rick McGraw (Manager Bobby Heenan was in Adonis' corner, during this bout. Adonis won, by pin, after an Inverted Bulldog/Neckbreaker Drop.)

Randy Savage W. Paul Roma (Savage's Manager, Elizabeth, was in his corner, for this match. Savage won, by pin, after two outstanding Flying Elbow Drops, to the upper chest, from the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle. Savage is in a class all by himself, for sure.)

Andre The Giant W. King Kong Bundy -DQ. (Andre's Manager, Lou Albano, was in his corner, and Bundy's Manager, Jimmy Hart, was in his corner, for this event. The end came, when Andre kicked Bundy, in the face, with his big boot, and then The Giant used a Falling Leg Drop/Sit-Down Body Splash combination, to pin King Kong. But this count was broken up, when John Studd entered the ring, and did a number on Andre, with Bundy's help, also. The referee, of course, disqualified Bundy, because of Studd's outside interference, giving the winning decision to Andre. Lou Albano also got involved, and Bobby Heenan came out, to the ring, and did his thing, also. This was a pretty good match, with alot of action, from start to finish.)
Bob Orton, Jr. W. Special Delivery (S.D.) Jones (By pin, with a Flying Backwards Body Splash, from off of the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle.)

The Dynamite Kid (Tom Billington) & Davey Boy Smith (The British Bulldogs)
W.
Brett Hart & Jim Neidhart (The Hart Foundation)
(The Foundation had their Manager, Jimmy Hart, in their corner, during this bout. In this super battle, The end came down like this: The Kid pinned Brett, after a sensational Flying Head-Butt, off of the top ring rope/ corner turnbuckle. This happened as Brett had Davey down, on the mat. Dynamite and Davey looked great, in this fantastic match, against their vicious foes, who looked in tremendous form, also. At one point, during this titanic struggle, Davey High Military Body Pressed Brett, and Tossed Body Slammed him, to the mat floor. That move looked great. The Kid took a bad beating, from The Foundation, during this awesome encounter. After the victory pin, The Foundation put a hurting on the Kid, and cut his forehead bloody, with the use of their manager's megaphone, plus their own brutal tactics. This Match was terrific, to say the least, with The Bulldogs and The Foundation at their best What else could be said about the British Duo that has not been said before, only that they are incredible, and give the fans action, to the extreme, through and through.)

The Missing Link W. Lanny Poffo (The Link had his Manager, Bobby Heenan, in his corner, during this match. The Link won, by pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a devestating Flying Head-Butt, to the mid-section, from off of the second ring rope/corner turnbuckle. Lanny gave The Missing One a real hard time, during this very good bout. Too Bad that Lanny lost, because he looked in great form, also. The Link, as usual, looked wild and rough, in this tough showdown.)

Ricky Steamboat W. The Magnificent Muraco -DQ. (Muraco's Manager, Mr. Fuji, was in his corner, during this bout. Both Ricky and Don wrestled up a storm, in this fierce battle. Muraco was cut bloody, on his forehead, thanks to Steamboat who gave Don a good going over. Muraco tried his best, against the martial arts expert. This was a nip and tuck skimish, all the way, with both grapplers trying their best to do the other in. At the finale, Steamboat was ready to finish off Muraco, by climbing up to the top ring rope/corner turnbuckle, and ready to destroy the rulebreaker, with a fantastic flying move; when fuji interfered, and threw salt, in the eyes and face of the fan favorite. The referee, seeing this, disqualified Muraco, promptly. Steamboat, of course, won the decision, over Muraco, via the disqualification route. This was a terrific bout, with alot of great wrestling excitement, from the opening Bell on.)

Corp. Kirchner W. Moondog Spot (By pin, with a One Leg Cradle, after a Holding Cross Back Suplex/Power Body Slam combination, also known as "The Samoan Drop". Kirchner, in his M.S.G. debut, looked like a good rookie wrestler, against the well expierenced Spot.)

The Junkyard Dog W. Terry Funk (Funk's Manager, Jimmy Hart, was in his corner, during this bout. The Dog won, by pin, with a Small Package-Inside Cradle. After The Dog scored the fall, Funk went wild, and did a Pearl Harbor Job on Junkyard, and then branded him, with his branding iron. Terry also struck the referee, to the mat floor. Funk could not take it, that he lost to The Dog. Terry is one hell of a wrestler, bar none, and The Dog is good, also.)
